With its 364 square meters arranged on three levels, the apartment represents an ideal solution for those looking for a prestigious home in an exclusive setting. VIRTUAL 360°. It is possible to visit the property, in addition to booking a visit, also through the VIRTUAL 360° attached to this announcement. A REFINED SPACE TO LIVE HISTORY This apartment, perfectly integrated in the fifteenth-century wing of the villa, offers a distribution of spaces that combines large square footage and fine details: - Ground floor. The wide entrance hall introduces the main living room, a cozy and bright environment. A refined kitchen, complemented by a functional loft, ideal for those who love to cook and entertain. Two bathrooms as well as well-organized storage spaces. - First floor, A generously sized master bedroom, with ornate ceilings and an intimate atmosphere. Two additional bedrooms, suitable for guests or family members. Two bathrooms, designed for maximum comfort and privacy. - Second floor. The recently renovated attic develops into three separate rooms, perfect for a study, a relaxation area or an additional room. A bathroom and laundry room complete the floor, offering additional comfort. RESURRECTED FRESCOES: AN INESTIMATE ARTISTIC VALUE The apartment preserves precious frescoes painted in 1656 by brothers Giovanni Stefano and Giuseppe Montalto. These masterpieces, carefully restored in a three-year conservation intervention, enrich the rooms with scenes that reflect the style and elegance of Lombard noble residences of the 17th century. Every pictorial detail has been recovered to restore its original splendor, combining art and habitability in a perfect marriage. VILLA FRISIANI MEREGHETTI: A HISTORY TO BE ENJOYED The villa, built in 1652 on a pre-existing 15th-century nucleus, is a testament to Lombard architectural refinement...
